

Hello to my many friends, family, customers and associates. Let me apologize upfront for the long email. I'm not sure if you've heard the buzz around town yet, so I want to at last let you in on a big secret. I have indeed decided to move the restaurant back in town. I have recently signed a lease with a nice guy from Canfield by the name of Terry Mcarthy, who owns the big, tall Russell's Mini Mart building on Main Street. This place has caught my eye on numerous occasions. It was completely remodeled to suit a restaurant, with all the laws and codes needed. It has a new furnace, new AC, bathrooms, walk-in cooler, fire ansil system, it's fully handicap accessible, etc. You name it, it has it. And did I mention that it is on Main St., in town, and on this side of the floodwall? When I decided to do this some months back, I was willing to give up all parties I could do up on the hill. But low and behold, this place has the room on the side, which will hold about 100 people. So that was a big selling point for me. Mr Mcarthy is currently finishing that side as we speak. It will have all new walls, floors, bathrooms, furnace, AC. It might be finished within the month. I must mention also, a big plus for me is Shoub Towers across the street. I've prepared a flyer just for them, with some good ideas to help save them some money, which I'm sure they'll like. Believe me when I say this, I've weighed all the pros and cons on this move, and the 20 or so pros win the race. A few of the pros just for starters, festivals uptown, reunions, parades, visibility, signage that people can see, heating, cooling. I won't mention that I can walk to work, or that three acres of grass to cut on the hill. Haha!

I just think it's time to get my butt back down that hill. We can still deliver out there though. So anyhow, that's my story in a nutshell. I could go on and on, but I'll spare you that. However, I am hoping for now, that you will try to stop out or call in an order, to kind of help me out a bit. This has proven to be quite difficult to do, both financially and physically. It's causing a big strain on my funds and my back. Currently the restaurant on the hill is for sale or lease. I have a few good prospects, and I'm keeping my fingers crossed. The new place is almost ready, and will be opening very soon. To wrap this up, I want to share my new slogan with you: "DaLonzo's, Your Home Away From Home Cookin".

Please send me back a quick email with any thoughts or ideas. Let me know how you feel about this. Thanks so much for being there for me and for being a good friend and customer.

Nick

P.S. here's a new idea I've had about the pizza boxes. Let the young kids or old kids, draw their own design. Each box would be unique and the kids loved it.
